

STOP Excuses, Elevate Accountability!

Get Out of the Way and Achieve Results

Got results or excuses? This content-rich, eye-opening program exposes the common problems that impact day-to-day operations and the bottom line. STOP Excuses, Elevate Accountability! provides proven strategies and essential tools that can be implemented immediately. An empowering and practical session for all business leaders and teams committed to their success as they strive to convert excuses into productivity, performance and profits. WARNING: Not suited for participants unwilling to look at themselves to improve their business and their life.

Participants will learn:

- The power of using the TWA model to elevate accountability
- How to determine if you're interested or committed to success
- Three techniques to shift from procrastination to productive action
- How to uncover hidden excuses and what to do to move beyond them

“Karen was amazing! One of the points that hit home was am I interested or am I committed? To make a change and quick making excuses, I’m committed.”

Susan K, AZBTA Program Director

Benefits:

Greater accountability will lead to improved performance. You and your team will let go of excuses, increase productivity and achieve results!
